Tax Accountant Vancouver BC

A good tax accountant in Vancouver does more than file a return once a year. Our team reviews your income, deductions and business structure on an ongoing basis, so decisions you make in March don't create surprises next April. Whether you're an individual, a contractor, or a growing business, we build a tax strategy around your actual numbers and stay available whenever a CRA letter or a life change needs a second opinion.

Accounting Firm in Vancouver

Choosing an accounting firm in Vancouver is really about choosing a team you'll trust with financial statements, payroll, tax filings and the advice that sits behind all of them. Razer Accounting works as an extension of your business, translating cloud-based bookkeeping into financial statements and reports you can actually act on, and staying close enough to your operations to flag issues before they become expensive ones.

Bookkeeping Services in Vancouver

Clean books are the foundation every other financial decision rests on. Our Vancouver bookkeeping services cover monthly reconciliations, accounts payable and receivable, and payroll processing, all recorded on the cloud accounting platform your business already uses. Instead of finding out where you stand only at tax time, you get up-to-date reporting throughout the year, so cash flow, margins and outstanding invoices are never a guessing game.

Tax Filing Vancouver

Missed deadlines and rushed returns are how deductions get left on the table. Our tax filing service in Vancouver covers personal T1 returns, corporate T2 filings, and GST/HST remittances, prepared with enough lead time to review every credit you're entitled to before anything is submitted to the CRA. We keep a record of every filing, so prior-year questions or reassessments never mean starting from scratch.
